Colo is the first gorilla born in captivity and the pride and joy of the primate department of the Columbus Zoo. So when the Columbus Zoo decided to have a classic car show, of course they decided to honor Colo for the event.

The show is held inside Jungle Jack's Landing. This is the amusement park and picnic area of the zoo which sports various rides and plenty of picnic pavilions.

The 2009 show is the 2nd annual show. While quite a few of our fellow club members attended last year, Jeff Inkseeep was especially impressed with the event and volunteered immediately to help with this years. Our club, of course, rallied around him and the cause, offering to help out as much as possible.

For our commitment, we were promised and received a large pavilion for parking our GTOs.

The event was a huge success with Daddy Wags from QFM 96 hosting the event including providing taped segments to be played on-air.

There were a total of 17 GTOs in attendance. At least 13 of them were club cards with a few, hopefully, future club members joining us.

The big winner of the day, other than the zoo, obviously, was Bill Sigg, who won a raffle prize of 3 bottles of wine. At least one of which was valued at over $90. Many of us offered to help him consume the fruit of the vine, but for some reason, he didn't take us up on that offer.

It was a great day with our club turning out in a huge way and helping park cars and judge.

Thanks to everyone who helped including Jeff Inskeep, Jeff Frazier, Jim Evans, Bill Sigg, Brent Barham, and Kevin Russo.

Veteran's Day Parade

Dan Gregory was asked to provide GTOs for the downtown Columbus Veteran's Day Parade.

There were 7 cars that showed up for the event and the weather was just beautiful for an early November day.

What a fun way to say thank you to all those who put sacrificed so much to secure our freedom.

Thanks to Stan Farlow for the pictures. Check out the web site photo gallery for the rest.

2009 Sunbury Country Cruise-In

2009 Awards featured a drive-in theme

The annual Sunbury-Galena Rotary's Country Cruise-In is a club favorite.

Not because we typically win awards at it. Because, frankly, we don't. But because of the fun the club has together.

We usually meet up early at the CVS on the corner of State Route 36/38 and State Route 3 around 8am. Then we cruise into the town square together. This year we had 7 cars cruise-in together.

The last two years, we've taken over the east side of the square and dubbed it GTO Alley.

After staking our claim over GTO Alley, we head over to the Sunbury Grille for a good old fashioned country breakfast. Joe Bennett kindly arrives early and reserves about half the restaurant for the club. Ok, maybe not half, but a large seating space.

This year, additional folks steadily streamed into the Grille until we actually did have half the restaurant.

In total the club had 10 club cars at the show. Those included, Sean and Kim Rienhart, Kevin Russo, Doug and Toni Boyle, Brent Barham, Bill Sigg, Ron Cozzo, Jeff Frazier, Mike Shockley, Keith Stevens, and of course Joe Bennett, who seems to always parks on the grass.

No, we still didn't win any awards, but it was still a good time.

At least Kim won't get sunburned today!
